

V. Floria, D. Ostavchuk

Testimony of injured persons in cases of medical crimes

The article deals with legal practice in medical cases of the Republic of Moldova. Attention is paid to negative trends concerning activity of the law enforcement bodies, in particular groundless closing of criminal cases initiated for commitment of “medical crimes”. The article although highlights the drawbacks in experts’ activity while preparing expert’s reports.

Key words: injured person, expert’s report, procurator’s office, medical crime, physician.